

House Resolution No. 692

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take great pride in acknowledging a significant milestone in the history of a blessed religious institution that has come to play an important role in the lives of many Callaway County residents; and

Whereas, on November 1, 2003, the congregation of the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church in New Bloomfield, Missouri, will commemorate the resplendent occasion of its One Hundredth Anniversary; and

Whereas, the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church will host an all-day celebration on Sunday, October 12, 2003, that will begin with a special worship service followed by a basket dinner and other fun-filled activities; and

Whereas, the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church has pronounced the Word of Jesus Christ and has ministered to the needs of the community through one hundred years of glorious dedication to God Almighty; and

Whereas, through both the trials and wonderful moments of their rich history, the devoted leaders and congregation of the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church have maintained their commitment to serve the people of the New Bloomfield community in the spirit of faith, duty, and love; and

Whereas, the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church is known, admired, and respected throughout Callaway County as a divine proclaimer of faith and friend to those in need; and

Whereas, the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church continues a fine tradition of one hundred years through commitment to meeting the spiritual needs of its members, changing with the times, and looking ahead to a wonderful future with God:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to the entire congregation of the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church as they proudly celebrate one century of steadfast dedication to the Lord, and in wishing them tremendous peace and prosperity as they continue to serve the Christian mission; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the New Bloomfield United Methodist Church in New Bloomfield, Missouri.
